

Kuoni Destination Management named the Official Accommodation Agency for the EURO 2008

Kuoni Destination Management's main highlight in 2008 is its role as the official UEFA EURO 2008™ Accommodation Agency. Kuoni is responsible for handling all accommodation requirements for the UEFA EURO 2008 SA and their target groups such as the official sponsors, corporate hospitality clients, the media and the National teams.

Additionally, Kuoni Destination Management also offers other clients the possibility to use their wide range of accommodation, specially selected event venues and dinner allocations during the UEFA EURO 2008™. Our tailor-made offers also include transportation, catering and excursions with your own personal Project Manager.

During the handling of the UEFA EURO 2008™ as with all its clients, Kuoni focuses on providing efficiency through the most modern and up-to-date communication and data technology, a professional team and transparency; a concept that shows why its clients put their trust in Kuoni Destination Management.
